

I want privacy at home for a reason, not to be bothered by telemarketers and bill collectors. Don't permit big business to dictate their terms to me or anybody else. Don't permit this litigation to move forward and waste my valuable Republican tax money on them.